SECRETARY BRYAN ON BAR Delay in River Mars Return Trip from Virginia.

(From The Tribune Bureau.)

Washington, July 31.—Secretary Bryan was stranded on a bar—a sand bar in the Rappahannock—early to-day, and was delayed on his return trip from Virginia, where he spent yesterday and last night.

Just what Mr. Bryan was doing in Virginia he would not explain to-day, but he indignantly rebuffed several newspaper men who had written stories that he had been on a lecture trip. It was the first time that the Premier of the Cabinet has shown himself really sensitive to the criticism of his platform performances, and his outburst this afternoon came as a surprise to the offending newspaper men.

Mr. Bryan is surrounded by his Chautauque engagements with the utmost secrecy, not relishing the publicity which has attended them.

SPOTLIGHT FOR "BECKY"
Berkman Keeps Embers of Her "Fame" Glowing.

These may be lean days for "Becky" Edelson on Blackwell's Island, but Constable Davis isn't going to have her way about short rations of publicity if Alexander Berkman can help it. He has established communication with the agitator and is preparing to give daily bulletins of her condition.

The first appeared yesterday and reported that Miss Edelson had taken not even a drink of water for two days. He declared he had received two letters from her, one Thursday and yesterday, saying she was very weak. Two tablets, as a preventive of "poison," are all she has swallowed in that time.

Berkman announced last night that three registered letters had been returned from the island, and he intended to take the matter up with the Postmaster General.

VILLA'S MEN LOSE 240 IN HOT FIGHT
General Murguía Surprised and Defeated by Pascual Orozco.

(By Telegram to the Tribune.)
Chihuahua, Mexico, July 31.—Two hundred Constitutionalists were killed and their bodies left on the field of battle when General Pascual Orozco defeated the Constitutionalists in a battle near the town of Queretaro. General Murguía retreated into the hills, leaving his dead and wounded.

Orozco, commanding a volunteer force of 4,000 in revolt against the Carballo government and the Constitutionalists, was supposed to be moving north, and he surprised the Constitutionalists as they were approaching Queretaro.

The dispatch announcing the engagement was received from Agua Caliente. General Murguía had been ordered to await reinforcements before trying to attack Orozco, and General Villa has ordered a detachment to the south to assist in the campaign.

Vera Cruz, July 31.—Constitutionalist leaders at Tampico predict that there will be no peace conference between the delegates of General Carranza and President Carballo in Saltillo, where the Carballo delegates should arrive to-morrow. From Colonel Gallardo, General Villa's personal representative at Tampico, it was learned that the Constitutionalists in that region have not expected that Carranza would even receive General Lauro Villar, the representative of the Carballo government, and that if he does the Constitutionalists will not agree to any terms made by Carranza.

General Villar and General Alencor were received with the utmost coolness in Tampico. None of the Constitutionalists officials was at the wharf to meet them, and during their stay they showed no courtesies. They boarded the Mexican newspaper men who accompanied them to General Villa against such action, and he finally obtained a revelation of the state of affairs. One of the correspondents says he was warned that if he tried to leave the steamer he would be shot when his feet touched the shore. They were all under guard until the vessel sailed on its return to Vera Cruz.

HUNDREDS HELD AS VANDERBILT STOPS LINER

Passengers Booked on the Vaterland Forced to Abandon Voyage.

MARLBOROUGH DUCHESS CAN'T SAIL

German and Russian Diplomatic Officials, Homeward Bound, Included in Tie-Up.

Several hundred first class passengers who had booked to sail on the Vaterland were alarmed as well as disappointed yesterday when it became known that the great steamship would not sail on account of the beginning of hostilities abroad. Most of them had already sent their luggage aboard, and last night there was a mad scramble to recover possession. Most of those who were to sail have not decided what course to pursue and are at various hotels in this city.

The Duchess of Marlborough came from Newport on Thursday night and is now at the Ritz, awaiting developments before deciding whether to sail by some other line or remain in this country for the present. Others at the Ritz are Count Czaky, of St. Petersburg; Baron and Baroness Rosenkrantz, of Denmark; Baron von Lersner, attaché of the German Embassy at Washington; Herr von Mazowiecki, secretary to the Austro-Hungarian Embassy at Washington; and Count von Saxe, of Berlin, and Ferdinand Schlesinger, of Milwaukee, who was on his way to visit his daughter, the wife of an Australian officer.

Mr. William G. Rockefeller, Judge Charles H. Deuell and Mrs. Deuell and Louis Tiffany were on the Vaterland's passenger list.

Boris Yonine, first secretary of the Russian Embassy at Washington, also is at the Ritz. When seen yesterday he would not discuss European international affairs, but said that he might be called upon to return to Russia at any moment, as he is a Russian citizen.

Adolph Karpen, a Chicago merchant, is at the Waldorf, but may decide to sail on the Oceanic to-day. He was to meet Mrs. Karpen, who is now in Sweden, and return to New York with her.

Anticipating trouble abroad, Mr. Karpen had visited Washington and obtained from Secretary Bryan a letter requesting members of the United States diplomatic service in Europe to be ready to return to New York at a moment's notice.

"My wife and I have decided to see America first," said T. B. Modra at the Savoy last night. "We were off for an extended tour of Europe, but it doesn't seem very encouraging now."

Elias Summerfield, a banker, who had reserved accommodations at the Savoy for August 7, called that owing to the cancellation of the sailing of the ship he would not require his rooms.

At the McAlpin Robert T. Gracey, former United States Consul at Progreso, Mexico, and his wife, and Mrs. Gracey, who had been appointed consul at Seville, Spain, and was anxious to get to his post.

"This certainly is a weird beginning for a honeymoon," said a comment made by Dr. E. A. Davis at the Biltmore. Dr. Davis was married on Thursday night and was about to start on a three months' wedding tour in Europe with his wife.

Dr. and Mrs. Davis have changed their plans and will spend their honeymoon at Alexandria Bay and Murray Bay instead.

On Monday Dr. Davis has been delayed by the cancellation of the sailing of the Vaterland are Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Little, Atlanta, W. Dunkel and Lady, London; J. H. Brown, Nassau, Bahamas; Mr. and Mrs. Silverman and Misses H. and S. Silverman, Chicago; Sigmond Bergmann, head of the Bergmann Electric Company, Berlin; Baron G. von Plung, Dresden; Otto Heinemann, Berlin; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kimm, Munich; and Mrs. Richard Kimm, Munich; and Mrs. and Mrs. A. H. Harnessen and maid, Yokohama; J. B. Noel Wyatt and W. E. Wyatt, Baltimore; Albert C. Burrage and family, Boston, and H. B. Thompson, Miss H. B. Thompson, Miss G. S. Thompson and Miss A. P. Jones, all of Hosiok Falls, N. Y.

The number of would-be passengers on the Vaterland at the various hotels is as follows: Waldorf, 22; Vanderbilt, 30; McAlpin, 46; Knickerbocker, 35; Astor, 27; Ritz, 41; New Netherlands, 17; Savoy, 4; Plaza, 31; Manhattan, 6; Belmont, 28, and Biltmore, 9. The total number is 317.

SAYS WAR GIVES IRELAND NEW HOPE
Dr. Coyle Thinks England's Plight Is Opportunity to Send Arms.

The postponement of Parliamentary consideration of the Home Rule bill, to which John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists in the House of Commons, has consented, was lauded last night at a meeting of the local council of the United Irish League and affiliated societies as a "master-stroke of statesmanship" by Dr. John G. Coyle.

"Every delay now means an added opportunity to ship arms and ammunition to Ireland for the defence of the country," declared the speaker amid applause from the 150 delegates.

"When the Nationalists of Ireland began to arm and drill it was suddenly discovered that there was a proclamation extant against the importation of arms."

"To-day a great European war threatens, and England's difficulty is Ireland's opportunity. Owing to the concentration of the English fleet to deal with the German fleet, there is no effective patrol of the Irish coast. Now is the time to renew our efforts to furnish the national patriots with arms and ammunition."

On motion Dr. Coyle's resolution was unanimously adopted condemning "the bloody and brutal murder and wounding of women, children and unarmed men in the streets of Dublin on Sunday last, by the soldiers of the King's regiment, as a blot upon the civilization of the twentieth century."

Patrick Egan, former United States Minister to Chili and Denmark, and Dr. Egan, who had been appointed consul at Seville, Spain, and was anxious to get to his post.

"This certainly is a weird beginning for a honeymoon," said a comment made by Dr. E. A. Davis at the Biltmore. Dr. Davis was married on Thursday night and was about to start on a three months' wedding tour in Europe with his wife.

HOST OF AMERICANS MAY BE STRAINED

Cancellation of German Steamship Sailings Bars Passage Home.

SHIPPING MEN FEAR TOTAL SUSPENSION

British and Other Lines Still Operating, but Liable to Stop Any Day.

(By Cable to the Tribune.)
London, July 31.—The situation as regards the transatlantic steamship lines is rapidly becoming acute, following the announcement here of the postponement of the sailing of the Imperator for New York to-morrow.

Several hundred Americans booked on the Imperator are now in London, and will proceed to Elmhurst, N. Y., to embark for the night. The battalion will return Sunday evening.

The expense of the instruction will be borne by the government. The program of duty will include a problem of attack and defense, in which two companies will represent an attacking force and the two others a defensive force. Particular attention will be paid to patrol and scout work.

The men will take shelter tents, and full field equipment. The wheeled kitchen of the battalion will be used. Lieutenant Water will act as battalion adjutant, and Lieutenant Groff as battalion commissary and quartermaster.

MELTED FOR "THE CAUSE"
Chicago Women Give Up Jewelry for Suffrage Fund.

Chicago, July 31.—A big gold nugget and a larger chunk of silver repose to-day in the safe deposit vault of the Equal Suffrage Association here as a memorial of the self-sacrifice of Chicago suffragists who threw their rings, bracelets and teapots into the melting crucible yesterday for the benefit of the suffrage cause.

The ceremony took place at suffrage headquarters. All day women carried in modern jewelry and heirlooms which they were willing to give up toward the $50,000 fund the suffragists are raising to help the cause.

One wealthy woman brought a heavy old-fashioned silver tea set in a basket. Many of the sacrifices consisted of old gold watches, chains and cuff buttons belonging to suffragists' husbands. The value of the gold and silver bricks was not estimated. They will be sent to the mint at Philadelphia for assay.

CUPID OVERRIDES NAVY
Midshipman Dropped for Marrying Wins Case in House.

(From The Tribune Bureau.)
Washington, July 31.—The House listened to Joseph E. Austin, appointed to the Naval Academy from Wisconsin, who violated the regulation prohibiting marriage, and received the midshipman to service was passed after Mr. Esch had explained that the young man had married the daughter of a prominent citizen.

Midshipman Austin finished his four years at the Academy in 1908 and was then ordered upon the customary cruise, which he was to receive a commission. Shortly after the cruise began it was discovered that the young midshipman had married, and while with the Pacific squadron he was court-martialed in the Philippines and sentenced to a year's confinement.

Mr. Esch presented the case of the young man in such a light to-day that the House passed a bill to waive the department's ruling and restore Mr. Austin to the navy.

BANK ASKS STATE TO CLOSE ITS DOORS
Deutch Brothers, Said To Be Solvent, Suffer from Run Caused by War Scare.

Superintendent Richards, of the State Banking Department, yesterday looked over the books of Deutch Brothers, private bankers, of 319 East Houston street. The concern is a small one, with about $200,000 in deposits, and requested the intervention of the department, owing to heavy withdrawals made during the week. The assets are said to be in excess of the liabilities.

Strasbourger, Eschwege & Schallek, 74 Broadway, counsel for general depositors and for Deutch Brothers, made this statement: "The petition filed in the District Court is a friendly action to protect the depositors. The bank is solvent, with a surplus of about $40,000. The liabilities are about $225,000. Excitement on the East Side caused by war talk caused a run yesterday which resulted in closing the bank at 3 o'clock in the afternoon."

"The failure of the Grochowski & Co. bank last week reduced the available assets of the bank so considerably that Deutch Brothers wrote to the State Banking Department asking for an examination. Owing to the inability of the bank to liquidate fast enough to meet the run of yesterday, State Superintendent Richards decided to close the doors."

"After a conference with Mr. Richards, we went before Judge Hand in the District Court and asked for the appointment of Mr. Richards as receiver. The court expressed satisfaction with the course taken by Deutch Brothers, and decided that a receivership was not necessary as long as the State Superintendent was in charge."

Most of the depositors of the bank are Hungarians and Russian Jews.
